The town was busy during the week-end with Indians, who have received land money to the extent of $35 per head—some families receiving as much as $300. Mr. Red Man is a great spender, and several thousands of dollars were left among the business men of the town. That helped some. There must have been some 400 or 500 Indians in town for a couple of days.

Wheat Board Bill Meets With Defeat In Manitoba Legislature

Winnipeg.—The Wheat Board Bill introduced in the Legislature by Premier Bracken, pending in Manitoba's parliament, in the establishment of a western compulsory wheat board, was defeated in the Legislature when the measure was put for second reading. The vote was 21 to 21.

Defeat of the bill does not involve resignation of the Government. Premier Bracken having announced recently that this would not be required in the light of a vote of want of confidence, and having given members of his party entire freedom to vote as they saw fit.

Opposition was led by Hon. W. R. Craig, who the three ministers who supported the bill in the bill, the bill was defeated by a vote of 21 to 21. The bill was defeated by a vote of 21 to 21.

DISCUSS BILL IN HOUSE TO AMEND AND CONSOLIDATE LIVESTOCK ACT

Ottawa.—A bill to amend and consolidate acts respecting livestock was considered in the House. Among other things, the bill provides that a commission man in charge of a livestock sale must deposit any moneys received for the sale in a separate account and not disburse the money until the sale is complete with regulations made by the exchange and approved by the minister.

Robert Burke thought these regulations very necessary. He said, however, that the bill was not regarded as reliable, but failed and a number of farmers had lost the purchase price of some valuable stock.

Discounts Gloom Stories

Hon. C. M. Hamilton tells of conditions in Saskatchewan.

Ottawa.—Hon. C. M. Hamilton, Minister of Agriculture in the Mackenzie Government, the principal spokesman for the special committee on agriculture, discussed the story of conditions and gloom which a series of witnesses, reported by a number of members, have been actively preaching this week.

Mr. Hamilton pointed out that the wheat grower had a steady loss of eight million bushels of grain from loss of crops and had been able to find more than 100,000 bushels of grain for sale at 10 per cent. per bushel.

He told the committee there had been a great improvement in agricultural conditions in Saskatchewan. The better weather had helped the grain grower to get a better crop than in the previous year.

The Government party, including Premier Bracken and Hon. J. L. McLeod, Provincial Secretary, cast their votes in support of the bill. The Liberal party, including Hon. C. A. Tanner and W. D. Butler, and one Independent, Joseph (John) McLeod, cast their votes in opposition to the bill. The bill was defeated by a vote of 21 to 21.

Alberta Liquor Vote Nov. 5

Opposing Forces Are Preparing for a Long Fight

Edmonton.—Alberta voters will decide on Monday, November 5, what form of liquor provision shall be in effect for the province for the three years following.

Premier Greenfield and his colleagues in the Government are opposed to the above date as most advantageous for the holding of the referendum which was suggested by the Legislature last week.

Although it was at first thought that the referendum would be held on the 10th of November, the date was changed after three days, and it was agreed to hold the referendum on the 10th of November.

It is understood that both the prohibition and non-prohibition forces are preparing for a long fight.

Mennonite Movement to Mexico

Conditions Said to be Anything But Encouraging South of the Rio Grande

(By G. C. Porter of Winnipeg)

Brownsville, Texas.—Much interest has been aroused along the Texas-Mexican border by the movement of several hundred Mennonites from Canada into Mexico and the return to the north of many of these immigrants after a brief stay in the new country. The Rio Grande, some of these went into Mexico across the bridge which connects Brownsville with Matamoros, and others crossed the river in boats, which is the boundary line. Others went across from Laredo, Texas, 200 miles north up the river and still others crossed the border at El Paso, the Mexican state of Chihuahua.

It is a thousand miles from El Paso, Texas to the City of Mexico, evidently a long haul for nothing less, but actuals can be seen except along an occasional stream. Irrigation has been work-

But capital cannot be secured to develop large works of this kind south of the Rio Grande because of the furor of the Mexicans normally prevailing against it.

Then, too, property lives are just barely as secure here in Mexico for the foreigner as they are in the States. Numerous revolutions have cancelled old deeds, conveyed vast blocks of land to this or that bandit gang as the victors, and have even been accomplished by succeeding victorious elites after the whole system of private land ownership in the republic has been so completely wrecked that regular years of orderly government is required to unravel.

This is the area that some of the great fortunes here have been produced upon—land gained by bloodshed and bought down here, fostered by a few daring spirits who are exploiting these conditions on both sides of the Rio Grande River.
